Accounting Authority Statement

The NHC undertook a Strategy Review process to reorganise and refocus the NHC to emerging priorities and re-emphasise important areas of focus and strategic imperatives following a period of transition.

Heritage is a tool at the disposal of the nation to promote social cohesion, and contribute to national development and therefore should be given the necessary recognition, support and appreciation.

The Council pledges to continue its role of overseeing and supporting the NHC to achieve the full implementation of the high level strategic objectives in the Revised Strategic Plan.

The Council endorses this Revised Medium Term Strategic Framework and will ensure its successful implementation.

CEO's Overview

The Revised 2020/21-2024/25 Medium Term Strategic Framework coincides with the commencement of National Heritage Council's eighteenth year of existence since its establishment in 2004. Since its establishment the NHC has maintained an upward trend of achievements and occupied a central and critical position in society as a thought leader on issues of heritage preservation and promotion within the ambit of its legislative and policy mandate.

The NHC has managed to raise the profile of heritage and placed it in public discourse as an important vehicle for the transformation of society through social cohesion and nation building initiatives.

Over the medium term, the NHC will build on the successes and notable milestones that were achieved in the preceding period. These include the roll out infrastructure programme of the Resistance and Liberation Heritage Route (RLHR).

The other important work over the coming years will be support to the evaluation of the nomination of the Resistance and Liberation Heritage Route (RLHR) for inclusion on the World Heritage List of the United Nations Education, Scientific and Cultural Organisation (UNESCO). This forms part of the important work done to memorialise the struggle for freedom and democracy in South Africa through the LHR Project.

The NHC will continue to strive for excellence and compliance with corporate governance prescripts. We will build on the proud legacy of uninterrupted ten years of Unqualified Audit Reports, and will strengthen areas identified by the Auditor General (AG) and through our Strategy Review Process as well.

Despite the challenge of limited funding from the fiscus, the NHC intends to continue with its mandate of funding community heritage projects through the annual public call. Furthermore, we are embarking on efforts to diversify our resource base through partnerships and other methods of resource mobilisation in order to continue the work.

The flagship programmes of Ubuntu Honour, the Heritage Awards and the Heritage Schools Outreach programme continue to strengthen the NHC's brand equity and enable it to reach new frontiers in terms of audience development and positioning in society. Through these and other outreach programmes we intend to sustain the presence of the NHC in the minds and hearts of society steadily moving towards the attainment of our vision of "A nation proud of its African history".

Over the next coming years, as the NHC we intend to continue engaging society in general and local communities to protect, preserve and transform heritage for the benefit of future generations.

The NHC will also play its role in the fight against the challenges of unemployment, inequality and poverty through a number of initiatives in partnership with other stakeholders.

Part A: Our mandate

1. Constitutional Mandate

The National Heritage Council (NHC) complies with the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, particularly Section 31 of the Constitution provides the right of cultural, religious or linguistic communities to enjoy their culture, practise their religion and use their language. The role of the NHC is to protect the diverse culture and heritage of all the people of South Africa, particularly the previously marginalised communities.

2. Legislative and policy mandates

The NHC is a Schedule 3A public entity, and an agency of the Department of Sport, Arts and Culture.

The mandate of the NHC which is drawn from the White Paper on Arts and Culture is contained in Section 4 of the National Heritage Council Act no. 11 of 1999 as per the objects of the Act as stated below:

- a. To develop, promote and protect the national heritage for present and future generations.
- b. To coordinate heritage management.
- c. To protect, preserve and promote the content and heritage which resides in orature in order to make it accessible and dynamic.
- d. To integrate living heritage with functions and activities of the Council and all other heritage authorities and institutions at national, provincial and local levels.
- e. To promote and protect indigenous knowledge systems including but not limited to enterprise and industry, social upliftment, institutional framework and liberatory processes: and
- f. To intensify support for the promotion of history and culture of all our peoples and particularly to support research and publications on enslavement in South Africa.

The NHC also complies with all other relevant acts, in particular the following:

- The Public Finance Management Act, No. 1 of 1999;
- Treasury Regulations;
- White Paper on Arts and Culture, 1996;
- Culture Promotions Act, 1983 (Act No. 35 of 1983);
- Cultural Institutions Act, 1998 (Act No. 119 of 1998);
- UNESCO Conventions and Protocols; and
- All pertinent labour legislation.

The following policy mandates are also applicable to the NHC:

- The National Development Plan.
- The Department of Arts and Culture Medium Term Strategic framework;
- Practice notes issued by the National Treasury;
- Applicable general public service policies on procurement/SCM, good governance and best practice;
- King IV Report on Corporate Governance; and
- Legal and regulatory imperatives for NHC functional areas;

3. Institutional policies and strategies governing the five-year planning period

The NHC Council undertook a Strategy Review and produced the Revised 2020/21-2024/25 Medium Term Strategic Framework based on the government priorities, the National Development Plan and the Ministerial Priorities.

Internal policies are reviewed annually to strengthen governance and are approved by Council.

4. Relevant court rulings

There are no court rulings of direct relevance to the NHC and this Revised Strategic Plan.

Part B: Our strategic focus

1. Vision

A nation proud of its African heritage.

1. Mission

To transform, protect and promote heritage through the coordination and management of heritage knowledge and resources for social cohesion and sustainable development.

2. Core Values

The following values will guide the programmes, actions and behaviours of Council Members and employees of the NHC and all those who are acting in its name:

- Ubuntu;
- Integrity;
- Professionalism;
- Equity; and
- Creativity

3. The NHC Business Model and Framework

Our understanding of heritage is that no single and universally acceptable definition of heritage has been proffered to date. Several attempts at defining heritage have been made in the past, one of which defines it as “that which is constructed in the present from remains of the past” (Ashworth and Turnbridge, 2001). The Oxford Dictionary defines it as “the sum total of wildlife and scenic parks, sites of scientific and historical importance, national monuments, historical buildings, works of art, literature and music, oral traditions and museum collections and their documentation which provides the basis for a shared culture and creativity.

Heritage as defined by Council, as informed by inputs solicited from the public is that “Heritage is what is preserved from the past as the living collective memory of a people not only to inform the present about the past but also to equip successive generations to fashion their future. It is what creates a sense of identity and assures rootedness and continuity, so that what is brought out by dynamism of culture is not changed for its own sake, but it is a result of people’s conscious choice to create a better life.”

The NHC’s focus is on heritage knowledge. This is informed by the mandate and our experiences from our stakeholder interactions. Our approach towards heritage programming is based on the following pillars:

1. Heritage programmes:

- a) All heritage projects will be based on research;
- b) NHC Projects will be designed with focus on national implementation;
- c) The NHC will research, design, and implement intangible heritage projects;
- d) The NHC will only support tangible heritage projects through:
 - I. Conducting research;
 - II. Facilitation; and
 - III. Provision of information

2. Co-production of projects:

- a) The NHC will engage relevant stakeholders on its projects; and
- b) The implementation of heritage will be complemented through relevant partnerships

3. NHC Project Alignment:

- a) All projects should align with national priorities;
- b) Projects should contribute to the realisation of the NHC’s vision by ensuring the following:
 - I. Building heritage knowledge;
 - II. Access to heritage
 - III. Beneficiation from heritage
 - IV. Application of heritage to people’s lives; and
 - V. Influencing people’s behaviour

4. NHC Products and Service Offering

- Research reports on national heritage;
- National heritage knowledge interventions programme;
- Publications on national heritage;
- Information on heritage in South Africa;
- Funding for heritage projects.

5. Situational analysis

The operating environment has been affected by the Covid-19 pandemic, which necessitated changes in the operations of the NHC. The post Covid-19

The National Development Plan and the Outcome 14 on social cohesion have clearly set out the role of intangible cultural heritage within the social cluster.

The NHC will expand its frontiers of engagement and delivery by promoting multilingualism through increased support of indigenous languages; making a contribution to the African Union (AU) Agenda in line with its Vision 2063; the NHC will also further be rolling out the definition of heritage and popularise it among South Africans, working with the Ministry of Sport, Arts and Culture through the policy advice mandate on the Revised Heritage Transformation Charter and pursuing the mainstreaming of the Resistance and Liberation Heritage Route in partnership with the Department of Sport, Arts and Culture.

The NHC intends to work more closely with its partners and stakeholders to achieve milestones towards the world heritage listing of the Nelson Mandela sites as part of the Resistance and Liberation Heritage Route (RLHR); contribute to the African Liberation Heritage Programme; the national focus of the RLHR and the rollout of the projects under the Project Management Office (PMO) and the Intergovernmental Relations.

The negative economic and fiscal climate is negatively impacting on the NHC Business Model and its capacity to deliver on its mandate. However, strides are being made in adapting to the emerging challenges of resource constraints, a resource mobilisation effort is under way and various models are being pursued. These include partnerships and exploration of opportunities to commercialise NHC products and services.

The migration of broadcasting from analogue to digital platforms presents opportunities for the wide distribution of heritage content through the new television channels to be established. The NHC will be undertaking a scoping exercise to ascertain modalities to exploit these opportunities as well as the legal implications of such.

Over the medium term the NHC will collaborate with other government and non-governmental stakeholders on the following areas:

- Khoi and San heritage;
- Tourism and heritage;
- Sports Heritage;
- Heritage Bursaries; and
- Youth and heritage

6. Internal and External and Environment Analysis

The NHC experienced a period of instability due to internal challenges which the Council is addressing. Key positions have been filled and the transitional phase is towards conclusion. A number of areas of organisational weaknesses which had been identified by the Auditor General are receiving attention and governance systems are in place for the Council to perform its oversight role effectively. The organisation is being refocussed to its legislative mandate
